

WHAT natural talents do you have

The DISC Index Profile is the most contemporary interpretation of Dr William Marston's ground-breaking work in how to understand and measure a person's natural behavioural style.

Understanding your unique behavioural preferences can greatly increase your performance

The DISC Index is unique

- It has the highest validity and reliability scores on the market to-day
- It is the only behavioural instrument to produce zero waste by ranking all words
- It uses a one-of-a-kind click and drag interface for significantly greater accuracy and ease-of-use
- It contains the most current instrument items for increased accuracy and reliability

INSIGHTS

At Clark, we want to offer you the opportunity to understand how you influence other people,
What are your strengths?
What is your ideal work environment?

Knowing yourself, your unique behavioural style and the natural talents you have is the first step to helping you on the next step in your career journey.

During these unprecedented times, we are offering you a Complimentary DISC Index profile report.

Simply click on the link below, read and follow the Instructions and complete the DISC Index questionnaire. This will take you approximately 15 minutes to complete.
